GREETINGS
to the
MAINE DAUGHTERS

As the years go past and we record the outstanding work of the Maine Daughters, let us ever be mindful of the achievements of those earlier true and faithful members, whose loyal devotion to the Daughters of the American Revolution made possible the recording of the valuable and commendable work accomplished thru our splendid patriotic Society.

These records are a monument to those loyal members, who kept our fine Society strong by upholding those principles for which the men of our Country are often called upon to fight.

I dedicate this History of the Maine Society Daughters of the American Revolution to the memory of those boys from Maine who made the supreme sacrifice. These brave men went forth to preserve this precious thing we call freedom and died that we might live. We will never forget them. Let them not have died in vain. These Patriots kept America "The Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave."

RUTH VICKERY HUSSEY,

Pledge to the Flag

I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND TO THE REPUBLIC FOR WHICH IT STANDS — ONE NATION, INDIVISIBLE, WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL.

The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a Republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

Daughter's Pledge

We, the Daughters of the American Revolution, who find rest under Thy folds, do pledge our lives, our hearts and our sacred honor to love and protect Thee, our country, and the liberty of the American people, forever.

Foreword

This book is presented in accordance with a request from Mrs. Frank Edgar Lee, Historian General of the National Society, and by motion of the Executive Board of the Maine Society, Daughters of the American Revolution.

A brief history of the Maine Society was written by Miss Louise H. Coburn in 1905, this being added to by Miss Mary Pelham Hill in 1919 and then again by Mrs. Mabel Goodwin Hall in 1925. Mrs. Hall's edition of 1925 was the last history of the Maine Society to be published. The material gathered by Mrs. Charles P. Barnes in 1929 has also been of assistance. We are indebted to the above named women for a part of this book.

The State Regents now living gave their biographies. The Chapter Regents or Chapter Historians gave the histories of the Chapters.

The State Historian wishes to express her appreciation to all who have assisted in any way with material or suggestions. Special appreciation is given Mrs. Ezra A. Freeman and Mrs. Harold P. Blodgett for their valuable assistance.

Origin of National Society Daughters of the American Revolution

July 13, 1890, Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood of Washington, aroused by the action of the Sons of the American Revolution in voting down a motion to admit women to their society, published in the Washington Post an article entitled "Women Worthy of Honor." This narrative included the story of Hannah Arnett, a patriot of the American Revolution.

August 9, 1890, a meeting was called at the Langhorne Hotel, the residence of Mrs. Walworth, attended only by the hostess, Miss Eugenia Washington (a great grandniece of George Washington) and Miss Mary Desha. These three women formulated definite plans and laid important groundwork in the founding of the Society.

August 18, 1890, a notice appeared in the Washington Post, stating the purposes of the proposed society and the requirements for eligibility for membership and requesting women descended from patriots of the American Revolution to send their names to Miss Washington.

October 11, 1890, The National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, was formally organized at the Strathmore Arms, home of Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, with eighteen women present.

To Mrs. Lockwood was given the distinction of bearing the name of "Little Mother" of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Medals were given the four founders in 1924 and in April 1929 a very beautiful memorial symbolizing the spirit and vision of these four women was unveiled.

This memorial stands beside our buildings in Friendship Garden with the Administration building for a background. It is an heroic statue of a woman and makes an impressive link between Memorial Continental Hall and Constitution Hall. The figure is seven feet high, cut from Tennessee marble; Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, a member of the Society, was the sculptress.

At the completion of the organization of the National Society two important resolutions were adopted: first, that the society should secure rooms and later a fireproof building in which to deposit Revolutionary Relics and Historical papers; and the second, that life membership dues and charter fees be set aside for this purpose.

These two motions were the source of Memorial Continental Hall in Washington. This beautiful building was erected by the combined efforts of all the Chapters of the National Society then organized.

The site was purchased in 1902, the cornerstone was laid in 1904. The first Congress was held in the building in 1905 while the final payment was made on the building in 1916.

The purchase of additional ground back of Memorial Continental Hall was begun in 1914. Upon this site now stands the Administration Building housing the offices of the National Society. This cornerstone was laid October 1921 and the building was occupied in 1923 by the various offices connected with the Society.

Constitution Hall is the last building to be erected by the Daughters. This hall contains an auditorium with a seating capacity for four thousand people. Fifty-two boxes are in horse shoe formation and surround the orchestra section. Forty-nine bear the seals of the States and one for the District of Columbia. Each chair has its history and story. Each State Society is represented and has contributed. Ground for this building was broken in 1928 and the Congress of 1930 was held here.

Maine Chapters gave sixty-four of the chairs in Constitution Hall.

The Library is located on the second floor of this building. There are two main library rooms, the south room being for the exclusive use of genealogists and the other one for general use. On the Maine shelves are approximately 400 volumes and in the group of genealogies are many which have been given by Maine Chapters. New methods of indexing have been introduced, each State assuming the cost of having its own books done.

In 1910 the sum of $1,000 was voted by the Maine Society to furnish the Maine Room in Memorial Continental Hall. Miss Coburn, Mrs. Kendall and Mrs. Briggs made up the committee to attend to this matter.

The Museum is filled with cases of very rare American glass, silver, porcelain and needlework. The Maine Society has sent many choice articles which are exhibited there as well as cases for displaying these treasures.

The Maine Society contributed $250 toward the air conditioning of the archives and document rooms on the ground floor of Memorial Continental Hall as its part in the Golden Jubilee Project of the National Society.

Revolutionary Soldiers' Graves

One of the earliest endeavors of the Society and one that has continued through the years has been to locate the graves of Revolutionary Soldiers and to honor those heroes by the placing of markers upon their graves.

This work has been done by all the Chapters of Maine in the towns where Chapters are located and in surrounding towns.

Typed lists of Revolutionary Soldiers' Graves located during the year are sent each year to the National Society and to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington where duplicate records are kept.

As a Golden Jubilee Project, Maine Revolutionary Soldiers' Graves was compiled by Mrs. Howard R. Houston, State Historian 1938-1940. This book contains the names of Revolutionary Soldiers and the location of their graves as reported before 1940.

Spanish War

During the Spanish War the Maine Daughters sent clothing, food, medicine and money to the soldiers at Chickamauga.

World War 1

Previous to the entrance of the United States into World War 1, April 7, 1917, and during the war years thousands of surgical dressings, knitted and sewed garments were made; much work was done in cantonments, camps and forts in the State; U. S. boats were adopted, also ships of the English Navy; thousands of dollars given to the United War Work Campaign, also books, magazines, victrola records and money for relief of overseas war sufferers. Families of Service men were cared for and many French war orphans were adopted as well as money sent for restoration of several French towns. Thrift Stamps and War Saving Stamps were purchased, American and Service Flags were donated by the Maine Daughters.

The War Service Records of 300 men and women were compiled and sent to the Historian General.

World War 2

Maine Daughters worked with the Red Cross in its humanitarian mission in a world where faith in mercy and human pity was sadly strained. They knitted hundreds of shawls, sweaters, sea boots, socks, scarfs, helmets, mittens and afghans; made quantities of men's and boys' underwear, infants' layettes and Buddy Bags for men in service at home and abroad. Books, fruit cakes, gifts and letters were sent to the Service men on the U.S.S. James Sullivan which was sponsored by the State Regent, July 1944 in Portland, and also for the men of the LCI (L) 586. They furnished three Motor Feeding Kitchens for the British, calling them The New Castle, The Bristol and The Bath, named after three Maine towns, and supplied books for the above named ships, also for government hospitals throughout the country and gave special attention to the Veterans Facility at Togus.

Chapter members studied and taught First Aid, Home Nursing, Nutrition and the feeding of large groups under emergency conditions, performed the duties of air raid wardens and motor corps workers, had Victory Gardens, organized canning centers, donated to Blood Banks, served as hostesses at U. S. O. and other Service men's centers, were Minute Women, neighborhood leaders for Emergency Farm Relief, served O. D. T. and on ration board panels and furnished an M. P. Camp at Alfred, Maine.

Fur was given for the linings of jackets for the Merchant Marine and Coast Guard. Money was sent for the Seeing-Eye Dog Fund for the K-nine Corps. All members were active in purchasing bonds.

Over 600 War Service Records of Men and Women were compiled and sent to the Historian General and duplicate copies were kept in the State files.

In many ways the Maine Daughters have shown themselves to be of true Revolutionary descent.

Maine Bell at Valley Forge

At the close of the Continental Congress April 25, 1937, forty Maine Daughters of the American Revolution journeyed to the Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, where the Maine Bell (c sharp in key) was dedicated. This bell, the 39th to be hung in the carillon, weighs 175 pounds. The cost of the bell was $600.00, which was raised from gifts of interested friends and from the sale of D. A. R. cook books. From the first, members of Pemaquid Chapter took an active part in this project.

The Honorable Ralph Owen Brewster delivered the principal address. He said, in part, "Maine played a greater role at Valley Forge than any other section of our land. At the right hand of George Washington stood General Henry Knox from Maine — as unflinching as the rock-bound coast of our beloved Pine Tree State. In that little band of ten thousand heroes there were more than one thousand men from Maine. One rarely thinks of women in connection with Valley Forge, yet Martha Washington was the ministering angel of the camp. Always with her through those tragic days was Lucy Knox of Maine. It is thus altogether fitting that women of Maine should gather here today to dedicate this Bell."

The bell was presented by Mrs. James W. Loughlin, State Chairman of Maine Bell Committee, who was instrumental in raising the funds to purchase the bell.

Mrs. Victor Abbott Binford, State Regent of Maine, in her dedication speech said, "We pay homage to our ancestors who trod this ground before us and dedicate this bell to Washington whose wisdom shaped our destinies." Then the bells chimed "America the Beautiful" in honor of Maine.

The bell was accepted by Rev. Charles H. Arndt, D. D., for the Washington Memorial Chapel.

The prayer of dedication, prepared by Mrs. Sumner C. Pattee, State Chaplain, was read by Mrs. Arthur N. Gosline, a member of the Bell Committee.

The inscription on the Bell is as follows: "Given by the Maine Daughters of the American Revolution in Grateful Tribute to Washington Whose Strength and Wisdom Shaped Our Nation's Destiny." Inscription around rim, "By the soul only, the Nation shall be great and free."

Opportunity Farm

Opportunity Farm since its beginning in 1910 has been a project of the Maine Society Daughters of the American Revolution. It was the vision of Mr. F. Forest Pease, a young man who came to Lewiston to assist Mr. Frank Winter in organizing the Androscoggin Boys Club after having been for a year, Assistant Superintendent of the Portland Boys Club. Mr. Pease felt the need of a home for under privileged boys and Mr. Winter offered the use of a farm and buildings in New Gloucester. Mr. Pease and Mr. Winter believed in giving these boys an Opportunity to help themselves and decided upon Opportunity Farm as an appropriate name.

It was out of the Androscoggin Boys Club that the Lewiston Social Settlement was born. This project was organized by Mrs. W. H. Newell.

The first boys at Opportunity Farm after the plans of the Androscoggin Boys Club were given up were three homeless boys from Lewiston Social Settlement, brought to the farm by Mrs. Newell and Miss Florence Nye. Later Portland friends including Mrs. A. A. Kendall, State Regent 1903-1905, became interested and boys arrived from Portland.

During Mr. Pease's first years at the Farm, Dr. Alfred Williams Anthony and his sister, Miss Kate J. Anthony, became interested in the farm. Just when the Maine Daughters became interested in the Farm is not known but there is every reason to believe it was in 1910-1911.

June 14, 1912 eleven persons met in Portland and organized the corporation, Opportunity Farm Association, with Mrs. A. A. Kendall the first President and Mrs. Newell, Vice President.

The 1913-1914 Year Book of the Maine Society said: "A resolution was passed that the Maine Daughters continue to endorse the work of Opportunity Farm." Mrs. Kendall, State Chairman, reported contributions of $500.00 had been received from Maine Daughters up to that time.

In 1913 the Association purchased a small farm, not far from the present location, being known as the lower farm. A few years later the house was rebuilt and named Kendall House. In 1914 Dr. Anthony and his sister presented to the Association a farm of over one hundred acres with a set of buildings, this being the present location of buildings.

At one time there were over fifty boys at the Farm, but in 1938 it was voted to limit the number to thirty-eight. At the present time thirty boys are there. During the years there have been different superintendents, matrons and teachers. At present, there are seven on the staff. While Mr. and Mrs. James Foster were there, Opportunity Farm was placed among the leading institutions of child care. A band was organized during these years, the different instruments being provided by the Maine Daughters. Mrs. Freida K. Morrill, the present Field Secretary, began her duties in 1934.

Opportunity Farm accepts boys from broken homes and needy homes 8 years of age and up and gives instruction to them from the third grade through the eighth. After the boys graduate from the eighth grade they are placed in boarding homes and supervised through High School unless their own home situation has by this time become satisfactory. At the present time the boys are enjoying swimming at the Auburn Y. M. C. A. once a week.

The Farm consists of some 250 acres of land with about 40 acres under cultivation. Anthony House serves as the dormitory, the recreation rooms, also laundry and sewing room. Staff rooms and the library take up the rest of the building. Kendall House serves for kitchen, dining room, as well as for school rooms. This building has a wash room and a shower room for the boys.

Nearly every Chapter in the State includes Opportunity Farm in its budget and the majority of the Chapters have a special offering for the boys before Christmas. Through the efforts of our Honorary State Regent, Mrs. Clinton C. Stevens, Opportunity Farm was placed on the waiting list of approved schools of the National Society; later however, the waiting list was abandoned by the National Society. Good Citizenship medals, War Saving Stamps, prizes of money to enable a boy to attend the Y. M. C. A. camp have been appreciated. American Flags have been presented from time to time. Chapters and members have donated not only money but furniture, dishes, bedding, beds, clothing and more recently one hundred chairs in 1945.

Many Opportunity Farm boys are now filling responsible positions in the business world. A large number of boys have served in World War II; one was a Major, one a Captain who previously had been a college professor, another a Lieutenant. Two made the Supreme Sacrifice.

Launching of S.S. James Sullivan

The Liberty Ship S.S. James Sullivan, named in honor of the famous Maine Statesman and Revolutionary Patriot, was christened by Mrs. Leroy Fogg Hussey of Augusta, State Regent of the Maine Society Daughters of the American Revolution, on Thursday, July 13, 1944, at the New England Shipbuilding Corporation yard at South Portland. The name, James Sullivan, was submitted to the Maritime Commission by Mrs. Hussey and chosen for the Liberty Ship. Attending the ceremony were Representative Margaret Chase Smith, State and National Officers and members of the Maine Society.

Mrs. Leroy F. Hussey presided when more than two hundred members and friends of the Maine Society attended the Summer Luncheon at the Eastland Hotel, Portland, preceding the Launching. Rep. Margaret Chase

Smith was the principal speaker. Other luncheon speakers were Capt. Andrew A. Sides, President of the New England Shipbuilding Corporation, and Rep. Robert Hale of Portland. Mrs. Fred C. Morgan, Past Vice President General N. S. D. A. R., gave a short account of the life of James Sullivan, Revolutionary Patriot and Maine Statesman for whom the Liberty Ship was named. Maine Chapters donated books for the S.S. James Sullivan.

Mrs. Hussey, with her insignia of office, bouquet of roses and bottle of champagne covered with bands of red, white and blue ribbons, presented a most attractive figure on the launching platform.

On the moment of 6.15 P. M., Mrs. Hussey broke the bottle on the prow of the S.S. James Sullivan and the great Liberty Ship glided from her cradle into the sunset waters of Portland Harbor.

It was a momentous occasion, marking the first ceremony of this nature to be observed by a State Regent of the Maine Society Daughters of the American Revolution.

Knox Memorial Association

In October 1914, General Knox Chapter, D. A. R., of Thomaston, Me., voted to raise funds to build a replica of "Montpelier," home of Gen. Henry Knox, which was razed in 1871 when the property was purchased by the Maine Central R. R., and the present station is the only one of the nine out-buildings on the estate left standing. Henry Knox (1750-1806), first Secretary of War in Washington's Cabinet, had "Montpelier" built in 1795. October 27, 1924 a Certificate of Organization of the Corporation of the Knox Memorial Association was issued. On Sept. 17, 1929, the cornerstone of the Memorial was laid under auspices of the Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Maine, assisted by the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution of Maine, and many other public spirited citizens. The rebuilding of "Montpelier" was due largely to the generous cash contribution received from Cyrus H. K. Curtis of Philadelphia and Camden, Maine, and other prominent patriotic men and women nation wide.

Mrs. Lucy Woodhull Hazlett, State Regent, Maine D. A. R. 1919-1921, a former resident of Thomaston, suggested that a Knox Memorial Association, Inc. be organized. This was voted and Mrs. Herbert M. Lord was elected the first President.

As a child Mrs. Hazlett was a frequent visitor at "Montpelier," and was graciously received and entertained by Mrs. Caroline Knox Holmes and her sister, Mrs. Lucy Knox Thatcher, daughters of General and Mrs. Knox.

Frances Dighton Williams Chapter, D. A. R., of Bangor, sent $100.00 to the Endowment Fund of Knox Memorial Association, toward the upkeep of the mansion, thus honoring Mrs. Hazlett who worked long and earnestly to arouse interest and secure funds for this project.

Eunice Farnsworth Chapter, D. A. R., of Skowhegan, also contributed the sum of $100.00 honoring Miss Louise Colburn of their town.

Three members of the Daughters of the American Revolution have served as Presidents of this Association: Mrs. Herbert M. Lord 1924-1931, wife of the Director of the Budget of the United States, who had a summer home at Martinsville, Maine; Mrs. Charles Creighton 1932-1935, of Thomaston, and Mrs. Ann Rice Snow 1935-1945, of Rockland.

Mrs. Snow served as State Chairman of Knox Memorial for the State Society, D. A. R., for many years. Upon her death, Mrs. Harold Blodgett, Rockland, was appointed State Chairman, Knox Memorial Association. At the annual meeting, July 1945, Mrs. Leroy F. Hussey, State Regent, Maine D. A. R., was elected a Trustee of the association.

The Standing Committee of this association has numbered among its members such prominent persons as President Calvin Coolidge, Vice President Dawes, Newton D. Baker, General Pershing, Andrew Mellon, Josephus Daniels, Governors of several of the States, Otis Kahn, Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, Hon. Pres. General, Natl. Society D. A. R., and many others.

Since 1937 the Maine State Legislature has appropriated $1,000 each year toward the upkeep of the mansion. The annual Budget calls for $2,500. Any person can become an annual member of the association upon payment of $1; the membership card entitles the holder to free admissions to "Montpelier" as often as desired when the house is open to the public, May 30th through October. The payment of $20.00 entitles members to life membership and they are exempt from dues. Sources of income are from cash contributions from patriotic citizens anywhere and from paid admission of 50 cents each. In 1936 over 3,000 persons visited "Montpelier" and were shown the priceless furnishings. War restrictions reduced this number and paid hostesses were excused as a means of economy. The attendance during the summer months, however, has been encouraging, visitors registering from California, Colorado, Florida, Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey.

July 25, 1931 the building was formally dedicated, and on each succeeding Birthday anniversary of General Henry Knox, suitable festivities have taken place, prominent men and women from all parts of the United States taking part in paying tribute to a noble patriot. Women in Colonial costumes act as hostesses on that day.

This Association has charge of The Old Church On The Hill to which the General contributed 40 pounds, and 42 panes of glass; this item was expensive in 1795. A Paul Revere Bell, also a gift, hangs in the belfry and is rung on each Birthday anniversary. The roof of the church is kept in repair and the outside painted. $50,000 is needed to restore the interior.

Markings by Maine Society

The first enterprise of a memorial character was erected in honor of the Maine Indians who served in the Revolutionary War. The monument dedicated June 7, 1912 at Oldtown carries the following inscription: In honor of the Indian Patriots of the Penobscot and other tribes of Maine for their loyal service during the Revolutionary War.

The Indians were uniformly faithful, and bore a part in every military movement conducted in the State. Three of them accompanied the Arnold Expedition to Quebec and forty-one took part in the Bagaduce Expedition of 1779. The unmarked graves of many of these Indian patriots are in the old cemetery on Oldtown Island, which is today the home of the Penobscot tribe.

The second State Marking was the Whipple Memorial. The marking of the old Cutt-Whipple House at Kittery with a bronze tablet in memory of General William Whipple, one of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, took place in 1913. Old York Chapter assisted in this marking of his birthplace.

The third spot to be marked by the State Society was the Old Jameson Tavern in Freeport, Sept. 1, 1915. In this building the final papers separating Maine from Massachusetts were signed on the fifteenth day of March 1820. Elizabeth Wadsworth Chapter assisted with this marking.

The fourth State Marking was the Governor King House in Bath, Sept. 1, 1915. Gov. William King, Maine's first Governor, was born in Scarborough, February 9, 1768, and died in Bath, June 17, 1852. This house, built and occupied by Gov. King, originally stood on the site of the present Custom House and Post Office. Col. Dummer Sewall Chapter assisted with the marking.

The fifth State Marking was a memorial to Miss Lucy Ames, State Historian, Maine D. A. R. On June 14, 1916, Flag Day, a granite monument with bronze tablet was unveiled in the ancient cemetery of the Passamaquoddy Tribe at Pleasant Point, Machias. Here are buried some two hundred Indians, many of whom assisted the early colonists to keep back the enemy from our shores. An ornamental wire fence was erected on four sides of the cemetery and a Flagpole set in the center. A large American Flag is hoisted each day over this consecrated ground.

The sixth State Marking was held August 8, 1921 at Cape Porpoise. The tablet on the boulder commemorates a battle fought on or near this spot, August 8, 1782. Rebecca Emery Chapter assisted at this marking.

The seventh State Marking was held July 1924, at which time the grave of Elizabeth Nichols Dyar, on a farm in the town of Freeman, was marked with appropriate exercises. The marker bears the following inscription: "To commemorate the patriotism of Elizabeth Dyar, one of the three young women who mixed and applied the paint to disguise as Indians the men of the Boston Tea Party, December 16, 1773. With her children she was smuggled through the lines to Malden, Mass. Passed the latter part of her life here with youngest son, John Nichols Dyar, on Prospect Farm; (Freeman, Maine) was buried on this spot. Also her husband, Joseph Dyar, was nine times captured by the British while Captain of a boat carrying supplies to the American Army. Died from the effect of ill treatment in 1783, and buried in Malden, Mass. This grave restored by Their Descendants, Town of Freeman and Colonel Asa Whitcomb Chapter of Kingfield, Sept. 1923." Mrs. Dyar was a Real Daughter.

The eighth State Marking took place July 12, 1929. Pemaquid having been voted Maine's Most Historic Spot, the area surrounding the Fort was made a State Park by an act of the Legislature. The honor of christening Pemaquid Park was bestowed upon Mrs. Victor L. Warren, State Regent of Maine D. A. R. The great rock which marks the site of the old Fort bears the date of 1607, the year the first settlers came.

The ninth State Marking took place July 12, 1930. The State Society, assisted by Topsham-Brunswick Chapter, unveiled in Brunswick, a tablet on the site of Old Fort Andros (1688-1694) and Old Fort George (1717) with public exercises. The tablet is placed on a boulder near the entrance to the Cabot Mill. This is also the earliest burial place. Here are buried Benjamin Larabee, Agent of the Proprietors and Commander of Fort George; Robert and Andrew Dunning, killed by the Indians.

The tenth State Marking was held July 12, 1932 in York when the State Society, assisted by Old York Chapter, dedicated a bronze tablet in honor of Major Samuel Sewall, builder of Sewall's Bridge. This bridge, which was built in 1761, is the oldest pile bridge in America.

Marking Benedict Arnold's Trail

At the meeting of the Maine State Council, D. A. R., held in Skowhegan, March 1909, the chairman of the Historical Marking Committee brought to the members of the Council a request that they mark Arnold's Trail through the State. In accordance with that request the following marking has been done.

On September 21, 1775 Arnold pushed on as far as Gardinerston (incorporated as Pittston, February 4, 1779) where they all arrived by Friday night and the expedition rested for a few days. At this point the Samuel Grant Chapter, Gardiner, placed a boulder upon the lawn of the Reuben Colburn house, which was unveiled August 28, 1913. This tablet marks the headquarters of Colonel Benedict Arnold, September 2-23, 1775, when he was the guest of Major Reuben Colburn, during the transfer of the army of 1,100 men to 200 bateaux built by Major Colburn for the expedition to Quebec.

Arnold and his army next went to Hallowell (now Augusta). The marker at Fort Western was placed by the "Connecticut Horse and Foot Company," as a memorial to Arnold, their former comrade.

September 25. Embarked on board our bateaux and arrived at Fort Halifax in the evening of the twenty-sixth. Fort Halifax Chapter placed a boulder in Winslow, opposite the Congregational Church, on the bank of the Kennebec River. This dedication was in November 1919.

In the summer of 1917 Silence Howard Hayden Chapter, Waterville, placed markers to commemorate the passing of Arnold through Waterville and Fairfield. The marker in Waterville placed on the Green in the front of City Hall on Front Street reads: "This boulder marks the course of Arnold's Troops on their Expedition to Quebec in 1775, carrying around Ticonic Falls and entering the Kennebec again near this point." The marker in Fairfield consists of a granite slab placed on an eminence overlooking the Kennebec River, about half a mile above the village of Fairfield. It marks the spot where Arnold landed his men and where the bateaux of the expedition were repaired.

The next marker along the Trail was placed by Eunice Farnsworth Chapter, Skowhegan, where Arnold was supposed to have camped. It is a large mixed granite boulder from the farm of Levi W. Weston, a descendant of Joseph Weston who volunteered to aid Arnold's forces of about 1,100 men up the river in bateaux on the expedition against Quebec. The marker is located on the grounds of the Skowhegan High School where it was placed in 1912.

The next marker along the Trail was placed in October 1913 in the town of Anson. Margaret Goff Moore Chapter, Madison, and Ruth Heald Cragin Chapter, North Anson, united in erecting a marker to designate the course of the road, cut through the forest in October 1775, for carrying past these falls.

At Carratunk Falls in Solon a marker was placed with the following inscription: "Landing Place of Benedict Arnold and his eleven hundred men, on their Expedition to Quebec, October 1775." This tablet was placed by Abigail Chamberlain Whipple Chapter, Solon, in 1913.

Here they erected a Flag, and from this event the Town of Flagstaff received its name. This tablet is placed by Albert B. Dolbier in memory of his Mother, Mrs. Mary P. Dolbier, for Colonial Daughters Chapter." The marker is on the lawn near the church in the lower part of the village.

In the summer of 1922 Abigail Chamberlain Whipple Chapter of Solon placed a Long Table and Seats at Arnold's Landing for the convenience of visitors. They also placed a guideboard at the corner of North Main Street and Falls Road, pointing to Arnold's Landing.

Historic Spots in the State Which Have Been Marked by Maine D. A. R. Chapters

The ship was built and so named after the destruction of the first SS "Maine" sunk in Havana Harbor in 1898. This banner was given to the battleship "Maine" when that ship came into Portland Harbor by Mrs. A. A. Kendall, State Regent.

Frances Dighton Williams Chapter, Bangor, has marked the graves of five Real Daughters:

In 1908 Col. Dummer Sewall Chapter, Bath, placed a memorial boulder at King's Dock in the North part of the city, to mark the place from which the English were driven April 1775 by a body of 60 men commanded by Col. Dummer Sewall, Capt. John Lemont and Lt. Edward H. Page. Before the Revolution a great many English ships were sent to the Kennebec River for repairs, and to load timber and spars for the English Navy; one of the docks was called the King's Dock.

September 28, 1912, a marker was placed on the Cannon in the City Park, with the following inscription: "Taken from the Somerset, British Man of War, in 1777." Marked by Col. Dummer Sewall Chapter.

In 1915, Col. Dummer Sewall Chapter placed a sign on King's Tavern which was later removed to the Public Library when the Tavern was razed in 1926.

A bronze tablet was placed on City Hall, Bath, in March 1915 by Col. Dummer Sewall Chapter. In the tower of this building hangs a Paul Revere Bell, cast in 1808, marked "Revere & Son." The weight of the bell is 1,034 pounds. It originally hung in the old North Church, built about 1800, afterwards in the Universalist Church and later in the City Hall until it was placed in its present location.

A wooden marker was placed on an elm tree in front of Lambert's Tavern by Col. Dummer Sewall Chapter, October 22, 1920. In this tavern kept by Joseph Lambert, Edward Parry, the King's timber agent, was held prisoner in 1775. This house was one of the first twelve erected in Bath 1759.

John Cochran Chapter has placed a wooden marker on the site of the home of John Cochran, a member of the Boston Tea Party, for whom the Chapter was named.

In 1904 Rebecca Emery Chapter erected a monument on the site of the old Stone Fort known as Fort Mary. Fort Mary was completed by the Government in 1710 and stood on Fort Hill opposite Biddeford Pool, formerly called Winter Harbor. Richard Vines and his company of 32 men spent the winter of 1616-17 at what is now Leighton's Point with his ship in Winter Harbor. This company of men lived with the Indians in huts and wigwams gaining a livelihood by fishing and hunting. Richard Vines was the first white man to settle here. A bronze marker was placed by William E. Berry of Kennebunkport to mark the site of the first settlements. Mr. Berry left to Rebecca Emery Chapter, a trust fund, to be used for the upkeep of the marker and a flag to be maintained on the premises.

In 1904 Rebecca Emery Chapter erected a boulder in the first City Cemetery, which also marks the First Church (1719-1830). There is much romance connected with the old Burying Ground. It was a private place belonging to one Ben. Haley until 1719, when he exchanged it with the city for a "thatch bed." Years passed and the city forgot it owned the land. A road was cut through one corner. The fence of the remaining portion was torn down and the graves desecrated. Children were seen using human bones as cudgels in their play. One nearby resident used a broken gravestone as a door-step. Under Chapter influence the city proved its ownership, fenced the land and turned it over to Rebecca Emery Chapter for good keeping.

In 1907 Rebecca Emery Chapter set a tablet in the Main Street wall of the Pepperell Manufacturing Company building, to mark, as nearly as possible, the site of the old Stone Fort and Major Phillips' Blockhouse, which served as a refuge from the Indians. The Fort was built in 1693.

The principal work of the Chapter for several years has been the restoration and furnishing of this building. It was here that Capt. Moore of the Margareta died. It was here that the first Masonic lodge in Eastern Maine was organized.

After some hours of fruitless discussion Benjamin Foster—a man of action rather than words—leaped across the brook and called all those to follow him who would, whatever the risk, stand by their Countrymen in their Country's cause. Almost to a man the assembly followed.

Still another bronze tablet was erected by Hannah Weston Chapter to the memory of Colonel Benjamin Foster (1726-1818), a veteran of three wars, who in 1765 built a Log Cabin, then the most eastern habitation in New England. This tablet also commemorates the service in peace and war of Wooden Foster, one of the original proprietors of Machias Township. He was the first blacksmith in the settlement and prominent in all its affairs and served as a private in the regiment commanded by his brother Benjamin.

In 1913 the following historical houses and buildings of Machias were marked with wooden markers: The first school house on the Donworth Block, on Main Street; the home of Rev. Steele, the first minister, now the home of Samuel Barry; the home of Phineas Bruce, on Bruce Street; site of the first Grist Mill and Woolen Mill, building now known as Getchell's Grist Mill. A marker has been placed on the bridge in Marshfield, about two miles up Middle River near the spot where the "Margaretta" was beached.

This Chapter has marked the site where the first Liberty pole was erected.

A large granite stone with bronze tablet lists the names of the first sixteen men and their families who settled in Machias.

In 1917 Patience Stanley Chapter placed a bronze marker inscribed: "Near this site stood in 1765 the first (an error) house in Winthrop then called Pondtown, built by Timothy Foster." Timothy Foster was the first settler of Winthrop. He and his eight sons all fought in the Revolution. The "first house" (usually is meant a frame house) was built in 1771 by Squire Bishop. Here the first town meeting was held. A part of it has been moved and is still standing. (It is not marked.) The Fosters lived in a log cabin built by Samuel Scott on the shore of Lake Cobboscontee. Mr. Foster did not build a home on the highway until about 1778.

Patience Stanley Chapter placed a marker in the Metcalf Neighborhood on a house built by Colonel Fairbanks in 1788. This house, at that time, was in the center of town, where there was no road, only a spotted line between the settlement and the Hook, as Hallowell was then called. Among the men entertained here was Tallyrand in 1794 and the Duke of Orleans. Col. Fairbanks enlisted in 1775, was a member of Arnold's Expedition to Quebec. He also took active part in the siege of Boston receiving his commission from Governor Hancock in 1788.

Old York Chapter assisted the State Society in marking the home of General William Whipple in 1913.

July 22, 1916 Old York Chapter placed a tablet on the Village Green (between the Church and the Town Hall) for the Sixty-three (63) Minute Men of York, in the American Revolution, the first from the District of Maine.

February 1919 this Chapter united with the Town in placing a tablet on the Village Green in front of the Old Jail in honor of the Veterans of World War I.

This Chapter has restored the tombstone of Major Sewall, who designed and built the Sewall's Bridge. This Chapter places a flag each year on his grave, although he was not a Soldier of the Revolution.

Old York Chapter placed a marker in front of the Emerson House in May 1938, thus marking the site of the First Meeting House. In the rear was the First Burying Ground 1636-1667. "Here stood the Church Chappel or Oratory belonging to the Plantacon of 'Acomenticus' chartered by Sir Fernando Georges 1642. The cittie of Georgeano maintained for worship according to the Church of England until 1652 when Massachusetts Bay Colony revoked the City Charter and it became a Puritan Meeting House." "In the rear of the Chapel was Ye Olde Burying Place where lie many first English Planters under the royal patent of 1631. The exact identity of those resting here is lost 'mid the shadows of the eternal past which thought explores in vain."

C., Charter Member number 133. In the recorded proceedings of the Continental Congresses evidence of her sound judgment and keenness of vision are constantly apparent. IN MEMORIAM

To the many Daughters of Maine who were ever faithful and true to the ideals of our loyal Patriots and whose devoted efforts and vision helped to make possible the achievements of our Society.

They are not dead who live in the memory of others.

THEY ARE NOT DEAD

They are not dead, forever dead,
Those well remembered faces,
They have but left us for awhile,
To live in fairer places,

Where Summer never turns to frost,
Where snowflakes never fall;
Where paths cut through the spicy woods
To trail along some wall

To where the light falls quietly
Across each heavenly floor,
And flagstone walks lead up to where
White crosses mark each door.

For each a house is waiting there,
Prepared by God who cares,
Crisp curtains at each sparkling pane,
Blue carpets on the stairs.

Designers made at God's command,
Homes like each earthly place,
Only with costlier hangings,
Only with creamier lace.

They are not dead, forever dead,
Those well remembered faces,
They have but left us for awhile
To live in fairer places.

Mabel Gould Demers.
